Exhibitions

Lines of Negotiation is curated by Claire Behan with assistance from people who live in or are connected to the Glencullen/Tibradden area. The exhibition explores the relationship between cultural influences imbued with the mountainous landscapes of Dún Laoghaire/Rathdown and the surrounding areas. The group consists of volunteers from Mountain Meitheal Ireland, the Dublin Mountains Partnership and individuals from the area around Glencullen/Tibradden.
Municipal Gallery, Level 3 5.00–9.00pm

Marine

The Irish Guild of Embroiderers exhibition focuses on a maritime theme and encompasses all styles of embroidery and textile work from the traditional to the innovative, from handwork to machine embroidery. For Culture Night, there will be short tours of the exhibition and some demonstrations.

Haigh Terrace, Level 3 5.00–9.00pm

Edward Lee: Model Employer and Man of Moral Courage

Edward Lee was a businessman who, in the 1880s built a chain of drapery shops in Dublin, Rathmines, Bray and Dún Laoghaire. He was recognized for his caring attitude towards his employees and was credited with introducing the half day holiday to Ireland in 1889. Exhibition panels on Level 4 and display cases on Level 5.
Levels 4 and 5 5.00–9.00pm

Traveller Trailer

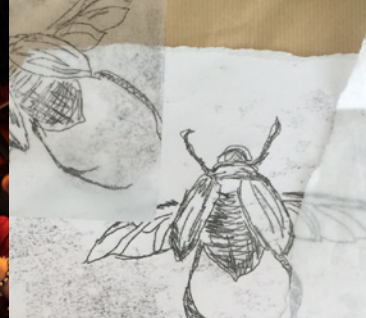

A group of Traveller women at Southside Travellers recreated a miniature replica trailer with the help of a local community arts worker. The group designed and built the trailer from scratch and have made and hand-sewn all of the interior furnishings.
