

dlr Libraries art competition for children 2020

Age 5 years and under

1 - Dean Hulshof, age 3

"What a curvaceous rainbow this is and here is the sun to compliment it. A lovely painting of summer"

2 - Elena Kastanida, age 5

"I love the sense of celebration, it looks like there is music playing"

3 - Sofia Mancinelli, age 5

"This artist is showing us how people can enjoy being in the sea with fish and also how insects fly above the sky. There is a nice happy atmosphere and two girls smiling"

4 - Aida Cullen Tighe, age 5

"This is a great clear message; you live near the sea - enjoy it!"

5 - Kyle Duggan, age 5

"This happy person is inviting us all to participate in growing plants in the earth and this gardener's smile is irresistible"

6 - Esme O'Connor, age 5

"What a perfect partnership, a girl and a penguin sharing a summer of love hearts"

7 - Elena Kastanida, age 5

"What a lovely picture of happy people enjoying a warm summer night dancing under the stars, all smiles and stars"

8 - Lochlann Donohue, age 5

"What a good picture of a game of hide and seek in a forest, even the baby is trying to join in"

9 - Felix Morrisson, age 5

"This artist is showing us a beautiful warm yellow sun shining down on green trees and making us feel happy"

10 - Dean Hulshof, age 3

"This artist has a good sense of design, there is a sense of travel and movement and the red stripe draws the eye"

11 - Simon Groome, age 5

"This is the perfect example of a limited palette, just two strong colours increase the impact, especially of the pirate ship"

12 - Jenna Brady, age 5

"This looks like a group of friends who are singing us an invitation to enjoy the summer flowers, I wish I could hear the music"

13 - Sofija Maguire, age 5

"How observant this artist is. So many creatures join us in the garden in the summer"

16 - Alex Duffy, age 7

"Convertibles are such a good way to travel on a warm summer day, with the wind in your hair and the road ahead leading to the mountains"

17 - Fern Morrison, age 8

"The flowers are growing, the bees are buzzing and even the sun needs sun glasses. There is a lot happening and everything is moving which makes the picture interesting"

18 - Ellie Tanner, age 6

"This painting is one clear message - chill out! It makes you really want an ice-cream"

19 - Maud O'Connell, age 8

"This looks like a lovely, cool place to be in the summer, and this artist obviously enjoys drawing plants"

20 - Fiona Bull, age 7

"These primary colours really show us how bright everything looks when the sun shines"

21 - Katie Mc Nelis, age 7

"This artist seems to be telling us how everything cheers up and is more colourful when we eat ice cream!"

22 - Iseult O'Neill, age 8

"The sea is so big but the girl is such a good swimmer, she is like a super hero"

23 - Ines Chemil, age 8

"This sun in the sky and an empty bridge. It invites us to walk across it and look at the view"

24 - Ines Chemil, age 8

"This use of a limited palette shows us how cool blues and greens can be"

25 - Maeve Mc Cormick, age 6

"In Ireland we get rain in summer so we get lovely rainbows, what a good use of a limited palette to tell a story"

26 - Liliana Jurgens-Fyhrie, age 8

"Two very active friends and a happy fish, this painting shows how important friendship is"

27 - Isla Garvie, age 8

"This painting has direct simple lines and tells an interesting story of a girl training her dog in the park"

28 - Julia Bowe, age 7

"Terrific colour combination and the use of the ice pop stick adds a tactile element"

29 - Zoe Wood, age 6

"A nice big plane, a big blue sky, people in a queue, holidays sometimes start at the airport"

30 - Ines Chemil, age 8

"This little house looks very inviting on a day so warm the sky is red"

31 - Kayla Pittock, age 7

"A big blue sky, a girl in shorts and a high ice cream. We can see that this girl is going to enjoy it"

32 - Vanessa Jarmuzewska, age 7

"A beautiful tree, a tent and a cat. In summer we can camp in the garden"

33 - Anvi Agarwal, age 7

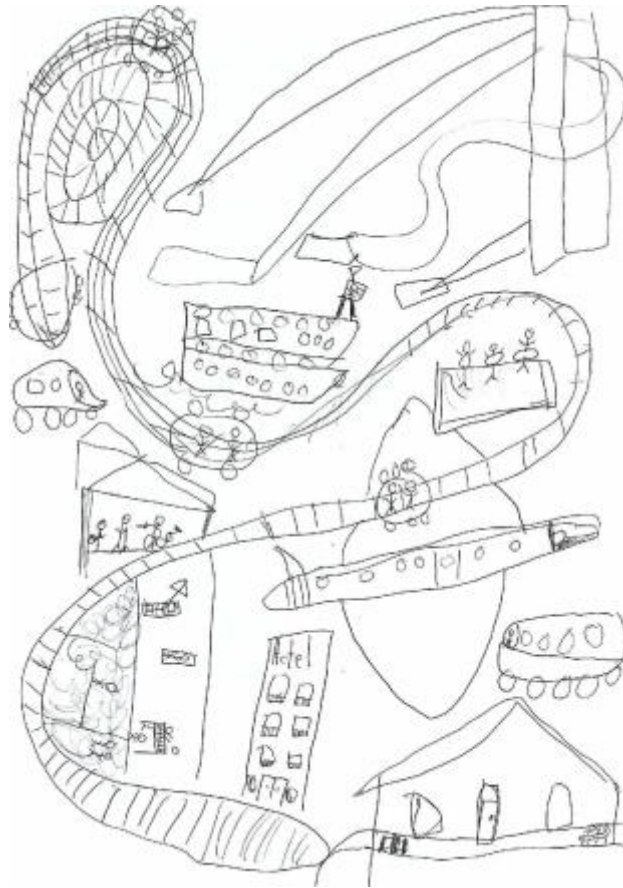

"This painting shows how much fun is to be had in the summer and how easy it is to be active when the sun is shining"

34 - Ines Chemil, age 8

"This looks like somebody's home. Maybe the gold and red sky are telling us that it is sunset"

35 - Holly Cass, age 8

"There is a lot of movement and flow in this busy summer town"

Age 9-12 years

36 - Ruairi Condon, age 12

"This painting is a warm invitation to descend the steps and experience the smell, the feel and the delicious coolness of the sea"

37 - Gia Jurgens Fuhrie, age 11

"This painting expresses the wonderful feeling that the sea allows us, to swim like a fish and frees up our hair at the same time"

38 - Leja Matiukaite, age 11

"A blue sky, blossom trees, butterflies and two children playing on the grass. Summer invites us outside to make us smile"

39 - Juno Cleary Kennedy, age 10

"This girl is in shadow, gazing at a beautiful sunset over the sea. She is going to enjoy an ice cream cone. It looks like the end of a beautiful beach day"

40 - Florence Chipperfield, age 12

"The use of stripes of paint in the tree trunks, the grass, the girl's t-shirt and the book is very effective"

41 - Arnie Duffy, age 10

"A frightened looking boy, an angry flying dragon and a palace. Will the boy use the sword? Will the dragon use his claws?"

42 - Adam Mc Cormick, age 11

"This artist makes us look out from behind a fence at the world of nature. It makes us want to jump over it and run through the mountains."

43 - Avvyukta Aiyer, age 9

"A three dimensional picture of a 99' with a beach, summer clouds and the sun. What a clever use of materials"

44 - Sian Wynne, age 10

"Two friends silhouetted against the sun. Is it the end of a perfect summer day? Only the artist can tell"

45 - Daniel Meghan, age 11

"A big blue sky and a big red mouth full of sharp teeth. A splashing swimmer. A beautifully illustrated nightmare"

46 - Cassia Lawrence, age 10

"This picture is full of movement and all the people seem to be really enjoying beach life. The strong diagonal line of surf draws the eye around the whole page."

47 - Ingrid Cannon, Age 9

"This painting of golden sand and waves in the sea tells us it is summer and we should all go to the beach. The limited use of colour makes a strong statement"

48 - Irie Stewart, age 10

"I think this picture say, the beach is for everyone, especially for children, the division of the picture with one side for sand and one side for the sea works very well."

49 - Tejaswami, Rai, age 10

"The use of twigs, string, stones and beads creates shadows which add interest and movement to this picture"

50 - Sara Minella, age 9

"Everyone in this family is joining in the activities, even the dog. The sea looks inviting and the girl in the wet suit is dripping and smiling to tell us she is enjoying herself"

51 - Grace Nic Mathuna, age 11

"This use of collage tells us that this is the beach, which is gold and yellow. The sea is the blue and the white and the beach towel is the red and white stripe. Clever use of materials"

52 - Mattia Minelli, age 9

"Two dogs walking on the beach, they are both smiling, the sea looks inviting but they don't seem interested. The diagonal line of surf on the beach pulls the eye along nicely"

53 - Arnie Duffy, age 10

"These two beautiful donkeys seem to be smiling, maybe they like having their portrait painted"

54 - Marta Mincinelli, age 9

"This sad looking man is all dressed up. He is saying he missed the train. It shows how even a sad story can make a good piece of art"

55 - Sian Wynne, age 10

"Hands creating a heart shape for viewing our dreams. A big blue sky and palm trees. What a good way to tell a story"

56 - Niall Meghan, age 11

"A relaxing picture of a frog enjoying greenery and the water"

57 - Kasvi Goyal, age 11

"This painting is a thirst quencher, and a reminder to all of us to smile"

58 - Millie Pittock, age 9

"This message is straight and clear, even Mr Sunshine is wearing shades"

59 - Eva Ennis, age 9

"This artist is giving us a very important message in a painting full of summer reminders, sun, flowers and butterflies"

60 - Una Bull, age 10

"A golden sky with fluffy clouds. Two hands creating a heart shape. A lovely way to remind us of family time"
