dlr Lexlcon Lab and
Room 2, Level 5, dlr
Lexlcon

Join Nathalie and Diane from social enterprise, The Sustainable Life School for this informal and social 4-week series to learn everyday easy changes you can make to live more sustainably and connect with others on the journey. This feel-good programme will leave you feeling motivated and empowered to make the changes that will positively impact you and our planet whilst saving money. Together we will learn how to be more sustainable in the areas of fashion, food, energy and reducing packaging.

Wed 13 Sept: Life with less plastic

Reducing plastic is not a one glove fits all, Nathalie and Diane will show you how it can be adapted to what's accessible, feasible and budget-friendly for you. In this session you will leave with tips and ideas on how to start or get more ambitious about shopping and living package free.

Wed 20 Sept: Sustainable Wardrobe

In this session, learn about the social & environmental issues associated with the fashion industry and feel motivated to use your power as a consumer to drive change. Get all the tips on how to source sustainable clothes, what to do with the ones you no longer want and how to care for the ones you love.

Wed 27 Sept: Cosy Homes, Save Energy

In this session we will look at the easy everyday actions you can take to help you save energy whilst creating a more sustainable home. We will also demonstrate how to use Codema's Home Energy Saving kits available to borrow from your local dlr Library.

Wed 4 Oct: Climate-Friendly Food

Learn about the connection between climate change and food, what is climate-friendly eating and how our food choices can have a positive impact on the planet. You will also leave with plenty of tips on how to reduce food waste. New plant-based recipes will be shared.

Poetry at the Lexlcon: Sara Berkeley, Dylan Brennan and Jo Clement

Monday 9 October, 7.00pm

Online via dlr YouTube

Register on dlr Libraries eventbrite from Wed 27 September to receive event link. Link will be emailed the day before the event. Please check your spam/junk folders.

In poems which are as dynamic as they are expansive, Sara Berkeley, Dylan Brennan and Jo Clement look at the power of art to shape our perceptions of the world. Drawing on influences ranging from the eighteenth-century printmaker Thomas Bewick, to Mexican myth and to the sudden uprooting of Covid, and engaging with the history of colonialism, these poets look at otherness, displacement, and the meaning of home.

Sara Berkeley grew up in Ireland. She spent many years in the San Francisco Bay Area, and now lives in New York's Hudson Valley where she works as a hospice nurse. She has had seven collections of poetry published, also a novel and a collection of short stories.

Dividing his time between Mexico and Ireland, Dylan Brennan writes poetry and prose. He is a recipient of the Ireland Chair of Poetry Bursary award. In 2022 he won the inaugural Drumshanbo Written Word Weekend Poetry Film Award for 'Four Attempts at Making a Human', a poetry film in collaboration with Jonathan Brennan.

Jo Clement is Managing Editor of Butcher's Dog poetry magazine, Newcastle. She lectures Creative Writing at Northumbria University and is a Poetry Book Society collections selector. Her first book-length collection, Outlandish (Bloodaxe Books) was shortlisted for the John Pollard International Poetry Prize.

Louis de Bernières in conversation with Martina Devlin

Thurs 19 October, 6.30pm

Studio Theatre, dlr Lexlcon

Booking required via dlr Libraries eventbrite

Author Louis de Bernières always knows which novel people are talking about when they tell him: "I've read your book." He has written more than fifteen, but Captain Corelli's Mandolin is the one people focus on.

He has novels, poetry collections, short stories and children's fiction under his belt, but the much-loved novel set on a Greek island is his defining work. It doesn't stop him writing, and the Costa Award-winning author will speak in dlr Lexlcon on Thursday, October 19 about his latest novel.

Light Over Liskeard is an entertaining read about a quantum cryptographer convinced a crisis is imminent for civilisation. He buys a ruined farmhouse in Cornwall and begins to build his own self-sufficient haven – a change of pace which brings him back in tune with his teenage children, his ex-wife, and his own sense of who he is.

Tales of the Otherworld: Anne Doyle in Conversation with Deirdre Sullivan

Tues 31 October, 6.30pm

Studio Theatre, dlr Lexlcon

Booking required via dlr Libraries eventbrite

There's another side to Anne Doyle – an affinity for the ghoulish, unexplainable and supernatural. This Halloween, in celebration of the publication of Tales of the Otherworld: A Frightful Collection of Irish Ghost Stories, join Anne for a special evening in dlr Lexlcon in conversation with writer Deirdre Sullivan.

Reincarnated as the mistress of macabre, the grande dame of the dark, Ireland's beloved newsreader delights in presenting her fabulously frightful anthology of Irish ghost stories, which have excited, unnerved and, for better or worse, stayed with her over the years.

Tactile books

This summer, dlr Libraries were delighted to launch our collection of Tactile Books, donated to the Library Service by the Anne Sullivan Foundation, the only organisation in Ireland that specifically supports people who are deafblind.

These tactile, accessible books were created by volunteers for children who are deafblind and may not otherwise be able to access the same reading materials as their peers. The books are suitable for any child with a vision and/or hearing impairment or who enjoys exploring stories through their sense of touch. The items are now available for any library user to borrow from the Children's Library, Level 4, dlr Lexlcon.

EXHIBITION PROGRAMME

Noel Goulding (1933-2021) Selected Works

29 September – 31 October 2023
Deansgrange Library

Dublin born Noel spent all his working life in the world of art. This began in the printing business where he worked as a graphic artist and he went on to establish one of the first graphic design studios in Ireland - Goulding Design Associates.

He always had a passion for painting, painted full time in the later part of his life and became renowned for his paintings of landscapes, street scenes and still lifes.

His clients and patrons included business interests and private collectors at home and abroad, together with acquisitions through galleries and art auctioneers in Dublin.

History Ireland Exhibition

4 October-4 December 2023
Level 3, dlr Lexlcon

History Ireland was founded in 1993 with the intention of taking the study of Irish history 'out of the ivory tower' and making the latest research and insights available to the widest possible audience. Its inception came at a time when Ireland and the study of history were experiencing significant changes.

This exhibition attempts to offer a flavour of the magazine's approach by showing the full range of nearly 200 covers from 1992 to 2023, while demonstrating what a rich illustrative archive of historical material is available in both art and photography in its content.

EXHIBITION PROGRAMME

Reverie: an exhibition by Rehabcare Bray

4-30 September
Level 4, dlr Lexlcon

This exhibition consists of work by those who have been attending art classes in the Rehabcare Day Centre in Bray for many years. The artists are adults with various different disabilities and different abilities. The ethos of Rehabcare is community enhancement. An exhibition in a public space like dlr Lexlcon allows the contributors to be a visible part of the community.

The theme of the exhibition is Reverie; the paintings express where the artists would like to be physically or as a state of mind, a place for contemplation, relaxation or a pleasant daydream.

These paintings are painted with acrylic paints which allows them to express their love of colour and detail. They are framed in minimalist frames allowing the eye to be drawn to the painting without distraction.

DLR Waves

3 October - 7 November
Level 4, dlr Lexlcon

DLR Waves are a women's football club who play in the League of Ireland Premier Division. This photo exhibition will highlight the best football photos from the 2023 season for the DLR Waves senior team and provide further information about the club and its history. There will also be photos of the successful DLR Waves U17 and U19 youth teams as well as past/present DLR Waves players who have played for Ireland over the years.

This exhibition will be a celebration of local women's football, aimed at promoting the achievements of the players and raising awareness of our local women's football team.

Energy Saving Devices

Do you know about the Energy Saving Resources that are available to borrow from your local dlr Library branch?

Plug-In Energy Monitors and Thermal Leak Detectors are available for you to borrow to use in your home.

The Thermal Leak Detector helps you detect energy leaks in your home by showing you the temperature differences with a coloured LED spot. This helps to identify thermal air leaks and areas for additional insulation and/or draught proofing.

The Plug-In Energy Monitor is used to measure the power consumption of household appliances and calculate electricity costs.

Contact your local dlr Library to borrow this energy-saving resource today, so you can try and reduce your energy bills in the future.

Moshi App

Welcome to Moshi, with hundreds of original and inspiring audio stories, music and mindful meditations to capture your child's imagination, help them sleep faster, and unlock their potential. Moshi is emotional well-being for the next generation!

Register, download the app and log in to access 30 days of Moshi stories that help your kids sleep, entertain them with healthy screen time and support their emotional learning. Find out more on our website by visiting libraries.dlrcoco.ie and search Moshi.

Medici.tv

Medici.tv is the leading video streaming service in classical music, dance and jazz, with thousands of videos of concerts, operas, ballet, jazz and masterclasses. As well as videos, there are more than 100 live events broadcast every year. Something for everyone!

Find out more on our website by visiting libraries.dlrcoco.ie and search Medici.
