

Welcome to Ballyogan Library

I'm going to the library

This is the main entrance for Ballyogan Library. When I go through the door I enter the building.

When I enter the building I go through the doors on the right to enter the library.

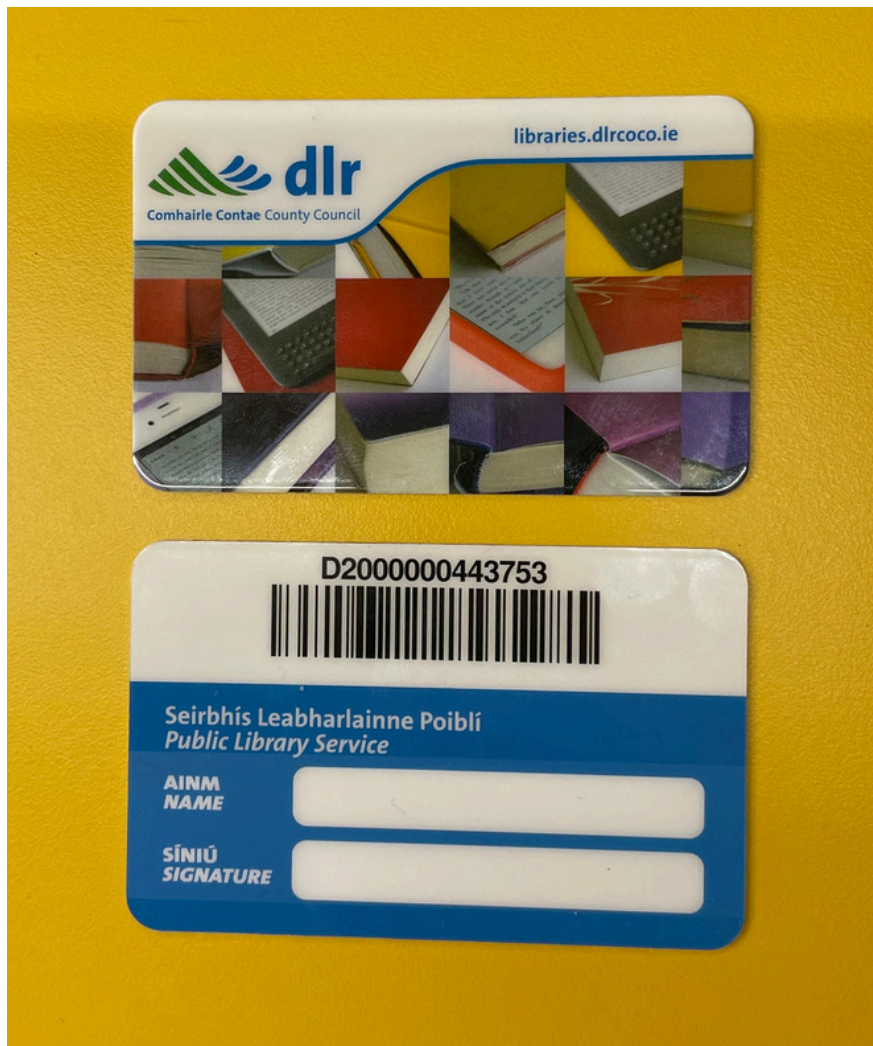

I will enter the library through the main door, this is what I'll see.

Once I enter I can go to the desk to see the librarian.

Librarians wear a staff badge
on a blue lanyard.
Sometimes it might be noisy and busy. If I need help I can ask a librarian.

I can join the library and get my own library card.
